

Yankee, Go South: More New England Unemployment Theories

Reason.comblog, 10/9/2011

I also got an interesting email response from Stanley T. Greer, newsletter editor for the National Right to Work Committee and senior research associate for the affiliated National Institute for Labor Relations Research:

Education Action Group Reports on Foundation Helping Teachers in Ohio

EAGTV.com, 10/6/2011

National Right To Work is helping teachers in Ohio sue to separate from the Ohio Education Association. Mark Mix the head of National Right To Work explains the details of the case and the impact Senate Bill 5 could have on unions in Ohio.

National Right To Work Attorney Erin Wilcox talks to EAGtv

EAGTV.com, 10/7/2011

About the case where 15 Ohio teachers are suing the OHEA.

NLRB poster ready for download, but will you have to post?

Lexology.com, 10/04/2011

Importantly, the National Association of Manufacturers, the National Right to Work Foundation and the United States Chamber of Commerce have each filed separate lawsuits seeking injunctions against the NLRB's posting rule.

Bachmann Beefs Up

Time.com, 10/10/2011

Mr. Short additionally serves on the Board of Directors for the National Right to Work Committee and the Colorado Family Institute.

What the GM bailout has cost taxpayers

Washington Examiner Online, 10/10/2011

As part of the bailout -- a scheme that appears to have chiefly benefited the UAW by preventing a dramatic loss in membership -- Uncle Sam accepted GM equity for an inflated price in order to put the automaker on firmer footing.

We Are Ohio claims SB 5 would make it harder for nurses to care for patients

Politifact.com, 9/27/2011

On the Truth-O-Meter, the claim rates Mostly False.

Organizing the Chicago Way: Challenger Says Hoffa and Feds Use Intimidation to Control Union

Townhall.com, 10/10/2011

Fred Gegare, who is challenging Teamsters president Jimmy Hoffa in elections this month to head up the transport union, says that Hoffa and the US government are colluding to control the union by the use of intimidation.

NLRB vs. Boeing: Damning e-mails

Triblive.com, 10/10/2011

Internal National Labor Relations Board e-mails that Judicial Watch had to file a lawsuit to obtain make plain that the Obama NLRB is no neutral arbiter but a Big Labor puppet and tool

September Tax Revenues in Oklahoma Jump 14.5% From Increased Hiring and Strong Oil Production

mjperryblogspot.com, 10/11/2011

Finance Director Preston Doerflinger said the state's revenue growth has been propelled by particularly strong income tax collections, reflecting hiring across many sectors. . .

Milwaukee Union President Weeps for Lost Power, Tells Members They must Teach Students Unionism

Townhall.com, 10/07/2011

He openly shed tears over the fact that Madison teachers walked away from their jobs during the February protests, leaving their students behind. Milwaukee Union President Weeps for Lost Power

Peterson also told his unionist listeners, "We have to teach our children." He went on:

"If teacher unions want to be strong and well supported, it is essential that they not only be teacher unionists, but teachers of unionism. We need to create a generation of students who support teachers and the movement for workers rights, oppressed peoples' rights. That's our responsibility."

Wisconsin Dems Chairman Seeks Funds To Recall Gov. Scott Walker

TPM.com, 10/10/2011

Before I go on the air, can I count on you to make a donation of $11.15 towards our goal of raising $540,206 by Nov. 15th?"

The state has achieved national fame (or infamy) this year for Walker's legislation stripping public employee unions of most collective bargaining rights, the waves of protests that filled the state Capitol and other locations, and the tens of millions of dollars that were spent on this past Summer's recall campaigns.

Secret ballot for me but not for thee: Trumka envisions a secret ballot survey of "Destroy Wall Street" Crowd

Daily Labor Report Online, 10/07/2011

"Occupy Wall Street is speaking for millions of Americans," Trumka said. "I bet if we took a secret ballot survey, most people in this room would say, 'Wall Street did do this to us, they got bailed out, they are back to business as usual, they haven't paid anything, and they should pay for something.' "